Section 3. Section 17.02.050(C) is hereby repealed and replaced with the following:

C. Allowable Uses of Land.

1. Non-Permitted Land Uses. A land use not listed in a land use and permit requirements table is not permitted if the use is not listed in the land use table for that zoning district. The use is also not permitted even if listed as a permitted use in one or more other zoning districts. In such a case, the absence of the use in the land use regulation table means that the use is prohibited in the zoning district.
2. Uses Not Listed in Zoning Ordinance. If a use is proposed that is not specifically listed in any of the land use and permit requirement tables or definitions, the Community Development Director may determine that the proposed use is equivalent to a permitted or conditionally permitted use if all of the following findings can be made:
  - a. The use is similar to other uses allowed in the zoning district.
  - b. The density or intensity of the use is similar to other uses in the zoning district.
  - c. The use is compatible with permitted or conditionally permitted uses in the zoning district.
  - d. The use will meet the purpose/intent of the zoning district.
  - e. The use is consistent with the goals and policies of the general plan.
  - f. The use will not be detrimental to the public health, safety, or welfare.
  - g. The use will comply with all local, state and federal laws.
3. When the Community Development Director determines that a proposed use is equivalent to a listed use, the proposed use shall be treated in the same manner as the listed use with respect to development standards, permits required, and all applicable requirements of the Zoning Ordinance.

SECTION 4. Section 17.04.020, Residential zone land uses and permit requirements., is hereby repealed in its entirety and replaced with the following:

17.04.020 Residential Zone Land Uses and Permit Requirements

The following Table 17.04-1 identifies the uses of land allowed by this Zoning Ordinance in each residential zone, and the land use permit required to establish each use, in compliance with this chapter. Notes:

- (1) A communication facility may be permitted with a conditional use permit in a Public Facility Zoning District where it is located not less than 500 feet from a public school or a residential zoning district or residential general plan land use designation.

SECTION 12. Section 17.24.070(D) is hereby repealed and replaced with:

D. Notice of Proposed Project Notification Sign. For all projects that require review of a Conditional Use Permit, Site and Architectural Review, Minor Subdivision, Tentative Map, Planned Unit Development, Pre-zone, Annexation, Variance, General Plan Amendment, or Re-zoning, the applicant shall install a sign or signs on each site of the proposed project in accordance with the City’s requirements. Upon notification by staff, a project notification form shall be installed in accordance with the City’s regulations within 30 days. No application shall be deemed complete until the project notification sign is installed.

SECTION 13. Section 17.26.030, Definitions, [the definition of Accessory dwelling unit (ADU)] is amended as follows:

Accessory dwelling unit (ADU) shall have the same meaning as defined under Section 66313 of the Government Code and shall mean an attached or detached residential dwelling that provide complete independent living facilities for one or more persons and is located on a lot with a proposed or existing primary residence. It shall include permanent provisions for living, sleeping, eating, cooking, and sanitation on the same parcel as the single-family dwelling.

SECTION 14. Amend Section 17.34.020, Definitions, (the definition of Mixed-use development) of Chapter 17.34, Density Bonus, to state:

Mixed-use development shall mean a development that includes residential as well as commercial, office or industrial uses. Base density in a mixed-use development shall be calculated by using the dwelling units per acre identified in the General Plan.

SECTION 15. Amend Section 17.34.020, Definitions, (the definition of Senior housing development) of Chapter 17.34, Density Bonus, to state:

Senior housing development means a residential development, mobile home park, shared housing or residential care facility for the elderly (Health and Safety Code Section 1569.2) that is constructed or substantially renovated for senior citizens aged fifty-five (55) years or older.

SECTION 16. Repeal Section 17.34.030(A) of Chapter 17.34, Density Bonus, and replace with:

- A. Resident Requirements. A housing development proposed to qualify for a Density Bonus shall be designed and constructed so that it includes at least one of the following:
1. Ten percent (10%) of the total number of units in a housing development, including shared housing, for rental or sale for lower-income households, as defined in Health and Safety Code Section 50079.5;
  2. Five percent (5%) of the total number of units in a housing development, including shared housing, for rental or sale for very low-income households, as defined in Health and Safety Code Section 50105;
  3. The project is a senior citizen housing development as defined in Civil Code Sections 51.3 and 51.12, or is a mobile home park that limits residency based on age requirements for housing older persons in compliance with Civil Code Sections 798.76 and 799.5;
  4. Ten percent (10%) of the total number of units in a housing development, in a common interest development as defined in Civil Code Section 4100, are sold to persons and families of moderate income, as defined in Health and Safety Code Section 50093; provided, that all units in the development are offered to the public for purchase;

5. Ten percent (10%) of the total number of units in a housing development of housing for transitional foster youth, as defined in Section 66025.9 of the Education Code, disabled veterans, as defined in Section 18541 of the Government Code, or homeless persons, as defined in the federal McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act (42 U.S.C. Section 11301 et seq.), where such units are subject to a recorded affordability restriction of fifty-five (55) years and provided at the same affordability level as very low income units;
6. Twenty percent (20%) of the total number of units in a housing development, for lower income students and made available at an affordable rent in an exclusively student housing development, as specified in Government Code Section 65915(b)(1)(F), where such units are subject to a recorded affordability restriction of fifty-five (55) years and priority is given to students experiencing homelessness; or
7. One hundred percent (100%) of all units in the development, including total units and Density Bonus Units, but exclusive of a manager's unit or units, are for lower income households, as defined by Health and Safety Code Section 50079.5, except that up to twenty percent (20%) of the units in the development, including total units and Density Bonus Units, may be for moderate-income households, as defined in Health and Safety Code Section 50053.

Section 17. Repeal Section 17.34.060(C), inclusive of Table 17.34-5, of Chapter 17.34, Density Bonus, and replace with:

- C. Number of Incentives. The applicant shall receive the following number of incentives or concessions:
  1. One Incentive or Concession. One incentive or concession for a project that includes at least ten percent (10%) of the total units for lower-income households, at least five percent (5%) for very low-income households, at least ten percent (10%) for persons and families of moderate income in a common interest development, or developments that include at least twenty percent (20%) of the total units for lower income students in a student housing development.
  2. Two (2) Incentives or Concessions. Two (2) incentives or concessions for a project that includes at least seventeen percent (17%) of the total units for lower-income households, at least ten percent (10%) for very low-income households, or at least twenty percent (20%) for persons and families of moderate income in a common interest development.

3. Three (3) Incentives or Concessions. Three (3) incentives or concessions for a project that includes at least twenty-four percent (24%) of the total units for lower-income households, at least fifteen percent (15%) for very low-income households, or at least thirty percent (30%) for persons and families of moderate income in a common interest development.
4. Four (4) Incentives or Concessions. Four (4) incentives or concessions for a project that includes at least sixteen percent (16%) of the total units for very low-income households or at least forty-five percent (45%) of the total units for moderate income households in a for-sale development.
5. Five (5) Incentives or Concessions. Five (5) incentives or concessions for projects where one hundred percent (100%) of all units in the development, including total units and Density Bonus Units, but exclusive of a manager's unit or units, are for lower income households, as defined by Health and Safety Code Section 50079.5, except that up to twenty percent (20%) of all units in the development, including total units and Density Bonus Units, but exclusive of a manager's unit or units, may be for moderate-income households, as defined in Health and Safety Code Section 50053.
  - a. If the housing development described in this subsection (C)(4) is located within one-half mile of a major transit stop, the applicant shall also receive a height increase of up to three (3) additional stories, or 33 feet. "Major transit stop" means a site containing an existing rail or bus rapid transit station, a ferry terminal served by either a bus or rail transit service, or the intersection of two or more major bus routes with a frequency of service interval of 15 minutes or less during the morning and afternoon peak commute periods, and also includes major transit stops that are included in the applicable regional transportation plan.
